New organisation at Termoventiler to meet the future.

To meet the future Termoventiler is now a member of Debe Flow Group, still with the same mother company Pomona Group. Read more

Service during summer.

Summer holidays are approaching. We are closing from July 10th to July 28th. We are back at the office on Monday July 31st. Take the opportunity to look over your inventory before the holidays. Last day for sending goods from us before closing is June 30th.

Have a nice and relaxing summer!

Proven quality - Low price

Laddomat 11-200 is our thermal charging valve / anti-condensation valve based on the well proven Laddomat 21 technology. You can choose, only the thermal valve or a complete product ready for installation, a lot of possibilities.

And... the price is very competitive. Read more
